The new-stand of the Bowers Bros. has been purchased by Mr. Frank Martin, lately of the firm of Martin & Wedding. Mr. Martin took possession last week.

The Easter Market held by the King's Daughters at Mitchell's grocery last Saturday was very well patronized and $26 were realized to be devoted to the objects of the society.

A very pleasant reception was given by Misses Edith and Bessie Steel last Friday in honor of Miss Stella Hatcher, who leaves this week for Oxford, O., where she will enter school.

There was an immense crowd of people in town last Saturday and the stock sales were very lively. About forty-five head were purchased, and the prices ran all the way from $30 to $150.

Miss Helena Brown will return this week from Montreal, Canada, where she has spent the greater part of the winter as the guest of Rev. and Mrs. T. S. McWilliams, formerly of Chillicothe.

Mr. G. R. Stormont, of the Princeton (Ind.) Clarion, came here last Wednesday and returned home Thursday, accompanied by his wife, who had been the guest of friends here for some time.

The ladies of the M. E. Church will hold their annual thanks offering service next Thursday afternoon, at 3 o'clock. An interesting program is promised. Light refreshments and a social hour will follow the rendition of the programme.

Mr. John McNicol will offer at public sale on April 11th on the farm formerly owned by him 1 1/2 miles North of New Boston, 3 head of horses, 1 cow, 26 head feeding hogs and other stock, 800 bushels of corn, hagg, harness, plows and other farm utensils.

Mr. George Shepherd goes to Cincinnati this afternoon to be present this evening at the Commencement exercises of the graduating class of the Ohio Medical College, of which his brother, Arthur, is a member. The latter has been honored by being elected the President of the class.

Burch Foraker, who has for two years been a student of electrical engineering at Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y., has terminated his college career to accept a very desirable position in the electrical engineer's department of the Metropolitan Long Distance Telephone Co., in N. Y. City.

An alarm of fire during the terrific wind storm of Monday evening caused great excitement. Tinner at work during the day at Ellifritz's Woolen Factory carelessly left their fire-pot on the roof and the high wind fanned the fire until the pot became red hot and attracted the attention of a passer who thought the roof was on fire and turned in the alarm.

The suggestion of the Soldier's Monument committee that the teachers and school children take part in raising the amount needed to complete the fund is a good one and ought to be taken up and acted upon in every school house in the county. The monument will not be for Hillsboro alone but for the county and in honor of the county's heroic dead, and there is not a child or pupil of the schools but would take pride in contributing their mite for such a noble object if the matter were presented to them. If the teachers will bring it before their schools and interest the children, there will be a ready response that will aid the committee greatly in completing the fund.

MAYOR'S COURT.

Jim Dooley plead guilty to the charge of keeping open house too late and was fined $25 and costs. John Troutwine, who was up on the same charge, stood trial, but got the same dose. One of the cases against J. B. Hawk was dismissed, as his bar was opened by Pet McCure, one of his barbers, who was supposed to be on duty at the bar only in the mornings, and was under strict orders not to be in the bar at night. In the other case his attorneys attacked the validity of the ordinance, and Mayor Davis has not given his decision.

Charlie Hughes, a Greenfield contribution to Hillsboro society, got fighting drunk last Tuesday night. He got the costs for fighting and $5 and costs for the drunk.

Mrs. Ellen West, colored, was fined $5 and costs Monday morning for striking Dot Hurley, a colored girl. The trouble occurred on Smoky Row and the Hurley girl was using some not very choice language which enraged Mrs. West.

Five colored boys, Ott Porter, Charley Newlan, Dick Delaney, Frank Delaney and Frank Trimble, who were all more or less under the influence of balmy spring and whiskey, visited the colored Baptist Church, where an April Fool "festival" was in progress, last Saturday night. If they hadn't they wouldn't all be in jail for five days under sentence from Mayor Davis for disturbing a meeting. Two or three of them engaged in a quarrel with Joe Tatem and when the latter's brother, Andrew, interfered they turned their attention to him and gave him a terrible beating, cutting his head badly. They stripped the weatherboarding from the house next door to the church to get something to hit him with, and when Tatem retreated into the church they broke in the door to follow him. There were one or two charges of fighting, disturbing meeting or drunkenness against each but on account of their youth Mayor Davis let them off with a light sentence and a warning. Their offense was serious enough to have landed them in the Pen if the charge of assault to kill had been brought, as it could have been.

John Robinson's circus will be here April 20th.

Mrs. J. C. Hallowell, of Decatur, Ala., is visiting her sister, Mrs. H. D. Waddell.

Tickets for Byron William's lecture on "Our New Navy" April 16th, can be obtained at Guttridge & Foley's restaurant. Price 35 cents.

Loyal Temperance Legion will meet on Sunday, April 9th, at the Christian Church on Walnut street. Meeting begins promptly at 15 minutes of 2.

Misses Florence, Louise and Julia Foraker, who were the guests of relatives here last week, returned to their home on Walnut Hills Saturday afternoon.

Whoever borrowed my riding bridle out of the barn in my absence would confer a great favor by returning it. It was a keep sake from my father, who is dead.

Mr. Chas. H. Goodrich, who was for a time agent of the C. P. & V. at this place, has been appointed General Freight Agent of the New York and New England Railroad Co., with headquarters at Boston, Mass.

Mr. Harry Spargur spent Easter Sunday here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Spargur, returning to Cincinnati Monday. He graduates this evening from the Ohio Medical College, and has decided to "hang out" his shingle in Cincinnati.

Miss Dollie Patterson returned yesterday to Oxford after having spent her spring vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Patterson. During her visit she had as guests her two very charming school friends, Misses Isabella Westfall, of Tacoma, Wash., and Ruth Carter, of Hillsville, Va.

The third number of Feibel's Enterprise, a neat advertising sheet, has been issued. It is devoted to "Feibels" although containing a large number of other advertisements; takes its name from the firm's greatest characteristic and will go out on its mission of "entertaining old customers and getting new ones, once a month."

A VERY LIGHT VOTE.

Elected All But Two of the Republican Ticket, Township and Municipal.

No Contest in the School Board Election.

The election Monday was remarkable only for its quiet, and not over half the vote was polled in either the corporation or township.

Owing to the withdrawal of Capt. Dawson from the Republican School Board ticket there was no contest and Messrs. Williamson, R., for the short term, and Downham, R., and Price, D., for the long term went in without opposition. The vote stood, Downham, 386, Price, 361, Williamson, 363.

He Made Two Wills.

John Milner, sr., of Fairfield township, died a short time ago, leaving considerable property and a number of heirs. Shortly after his death two wills were found, one bearing date February 27th, 1888, and the other February 27th, 1889. The first will distributed the property among the heirs, but not as equally as some hoped for. The second one was simply a revocation of the first. Both wills were filed for probate, and last Thursday evidence was heard in the case. Judge Kelly admitted the original to probate, refusing the second. David S. Milner's application to be appointed administrator was refused on the ground that his interests were adverse to the interests of the estate, and Fremont B. Milner was appointed. The case will be carried to another Court by the upholders of the second will.

Water Works Election.

The City Council did not delay long in acting upon the water works bill passed last week by the Legislature, and last Thursday evening met and issued a call for a special election to be held next Wednesday, April 12th.

It is hardly necessary to urge every one to vote, Yes, when the day comes. The matter has been so thoroughly agitated in the past year and public opinion has become so strongly in favor of water works that we believe the immense majority of last spring will be increased without any arguments or urging being necessary.

WE'LL SOON BE RAISED.

July 1st Will See Us Assume the Dignity of a Second Class Post Office.

Ever since Postmaster Carson has held the office, he has been diligent in the effort to raise the Hillsboro office from the third to the second class.

The receipts have shown a steady gain all along and the completion of the reports for the last quarter of the fiscal year which ended March 31st, shows that we have stepped over the line and that the receipts have more than reached the amount required to put us in the second class. The classification will go into effect at the beginning of the next quarter, July 1st.

The new rank has many advantages and the promotion is especially gratifying as a sure indication of the growth of Hillsboro and her business interests. Few towns with a population of 4,000 can make such a creditable showing and Capt. Carson is of course greatly pleased to have had the promotion made during his administration.

Death of Mrs. Enos H. Shepherd.

A peculiarly sad death and one which has cast a gloom over all, occurred on Easter morning when Cora Mills Shepherd, wife of Enos H. Shepherd, passed into the world beyond. Mrs. Shepherd was taken suddenly ill on the night of March 23d with peritonitis, and almost from the first her condition was the cause of the greatest apprehension on the part of her friends. She grew worse with each day of her illness, and almost all hope was given up for several days before death came to end her sufferings.

Mrs. Shepherd came to Hillsboro as the bride of Enos H. Shepherd two years ago last October, having met him during a short temporary residence here the preceding year. Comparatively unknown then, she soon won her way into the hearts of all, and the great sorrow at her death betokens more than anything else could, the love and esteem in which she was held. The blow to the devoted husband has been a terrible one, and he has the sincerest sympathy of all in his affliction.

The funeral services were held at the Methodist Church, of which she was a member, on Tuesday afternoon, and were conducted by Rev. James Murray, after which the remains were followed to their final resting place by a large concourse of sorrowing friends. Her mother and sister were here during her last hours, and her father and other relatives were here to witness the last sad rites of burial.

Mrs. Shepherd was born at Fremont, O., December 20th, 1863, and was the second of a family of seven children, all of the others surviving her. She was married to Enos H. Shepherd at her home at Marshallville, O., in October, 1890, and came immediately to Hillsboro, where she has since lived.

Died.

John Dill died in the early dawn of Sabbath morning, March 19th, 1893, at his home in Columbus, O. He was born November 23d, 1812. The weight of eighty years had begun to tell upon his feeble body, but his mental strength was unimpaired. The last day of his life he was unusually well, and entertained his friends with cheerful words and happy reminiscence till a late hour in the evening. Suddenly, in the still watches of the night, the death angel entered his chamber. He had but time to call his family to him, and suffer one short hour of pain, then he was set free from the body and he entered into rest eternal, trusting in his Lord and Savior.

Administrator's Notice.

NOTICE is hereby given that the undersigned has been duly appointed and qualified as administrator, with the will annexed, of the estate of Jacob Rotroff, late of Highland county, Ohio, deceased.
JACOB ROTROFF, Sugarfree Ridge, O.
Dated March 31st, 1893.

Gov. Hart Out.

President Cleveland last week appointed Felix A. Reeve, of Tennessee, to be Solicitor of Internal Revenue, the position held by Ex-Gov. Alphonso Hart, of this city, during President Harrison's term. This is the position for which Hon. R. T. Hough was a candidate. If President Cleveland considered Mr. Hough's name he was probably impressed with the idea that Hillsboro wanted a good deal in asking for such an important place twice in succession and so turned his eye Southward. Mr. Hough's expectations were not great so that he probably needs but little consolation, but still we regret that he was not chosen for the place. It is said that Gov. Hart will not return here but will enter the practice of law at Washington.

After Six Years.

George Leonard was arrested at Greenfield last week and brought here to serve out an unexpired sentence. He was sent over in February, 1887, to serve a sentence of 60 days, $200 fine and costs. On March 9th he skipped out from the stone pile. He returned to Greenfield some time ago but wasn't molested until he began his old trick of wife whipping, which got him into trouble in the first place. He will have eight or nine months to serve.

MARRIED.

ROBERTS—NYE—At the Baptist parsonage in Greenfield, O., on March 28th, 1893, by Rev. R. W. King, Mr. A. R. Roberts and Miss Hattie N. Nye, all of Hillsboro.

SHAW—ROTROFF—At the residence of the bride's parents, near Sugarfree Ridge, on March 26th, 1893, by Rev. Norman Jones, Mr. Charles Shaw and Miss Mary C. Rotroff, both of Highland county.

Paralysis of the Throat—Numbness and Weakness—Perfect Health Restored by Hood's Sarsaparilla

Mrs. C. S. Southwick
North Madison, Ohio.

"My wife and three children were attacked with diphtheria at the same time. After serious illness the greatest danger was safely passed, but they were all left with Paralysis of the Throat, and with my wife it also affected her limbs. Her arms were numb near to the shoulders, accompanied with a prickling sensation. It was so difficult for her to swallow. It seemed as if she must starve. The children were in a similar condition. Physicians were greatly perplexed and said it was very critical with my wife, as she was more than likely to have paralysis at any time, and if so it would be very doubtful if she survived. Finally a friend suggested Hood's Sarsaparilla. Although we had not the slightest faith, we were so discouraged that we were ready to try anything. I got a bottle and began giving it to them.

Words are feeble to express the gratification we all felt at the end of a week to find an improvement. When they had finished three bottles I could not see but they were as well as previous to their sickness. The numbness and paralysis entirely disappeared. There was no trouble in eating, breathing.
